

Jury Rules 'No Crime' In Death Of Man, 68

By MIKE UTT

After deliberating for one hour and 45 minutes Friday afternoon, a District Court jury of three men and three women returned with a verdict that no crime had been committed in the inquest into the death of Orrie Switzer, 68, Gladstone.

After hearing testimony from 11 witnesses during the two-day hearing, the jury went out at 3:45 p.m. and returned with their verdict at 5:30.

The panel of six persons found that death resulted from cardiac arrest, precipitated by irreversible kidney damage resulting from massive hemorrhage due to a stab wound.

Unknown Manner

They also found that death resulted by lawful or unknown means and that stab wound was inflicted in an unknown manner.

Members of the jury for the hearing were John LaBranche, Mario Chigi, John Chernick, Virginia Haverton, Agnes Hupy and Jeanne Dietrich.

The inquest was called by Prosecuting Attorney John Beauchamp after his office and the Gladstone Police Department completed an investigation into the death of Switzer. Beauchamp said in asking the inquest that based on all of the facts available to him he was unable to positively conclude that a crime was committed.

Switzer died at 12:30 p.m. Monday, July 6, at St. Francis Hospital, where he was taken by ambulance on July 4, suffering from a stab wound in his left side.

Five Witnesses

Called to the stand to testify Friday were Dr. Robert Ryde of Escanaba, a physician and surgeon who examined Switzer on July 5 at the hospital with

Dr. Carl Olson of Gladstone; Courtney Dahm of the Gladstone Police Department, who was one of the officers investigating at the Switzer home on the night of the incident; Wallace Pletzke of the Marquette State Police Post, who gave a polygraph (lie detector) examination to Bertha Switzer; Dr. Raymond Hockstad of Escanaba, who treated Switzer for his gout condition; and Joyce Boyer of Rapid River, daughter of Orrie and Bertha Switzer.

Dahm testified that the two knives that had been found in the Switzer home on July 4 were brought to the police station by Allen Switzer. The police then packaged the knives and sent them to the crime lab to test for blood, and if there was any, the blood type. They did not ask the crime lab to look for fingerprints because of the number of people that had touched the knives.

Results Inconclusive

The report sent back by the crime lab showed that reddish-brown crusts were found on both knives, but tests failed to prove that the blood was of a human origin, Dahm said.

The lie detector test given to Mrs. Switzer was unable to conclude whether or not she was being truthful or untruthful, according to the testimony given by Pletzke.

When asked about Switzer's mental state during the past year, Dr. Hockstad said that he felt Switzer's condition was such that he was capable of taking of his own life.

Mrs. Boyer was called to the stand because of a telephone call she made to Harold Switzer Orrie's Switzer's brother, telling him that her mother had stabbed her father.

When asked how she arrived at such a conclusion, Mrs. Boyer said that, unknowing the facts, she thought that this was what had happened because there was not anybody else in the house at the time of the incident.

She also said that she arrived at this conclusion by herself and that nobody else told her what happened.

Dr. Ryde supported the testimony given by Dr. Olson on Thursday, saying that their examination found no major organs perforated and that after the operation, Switzer was in satisfactory condition and not in the state of shock.

U.S. Coast Guard Denies Closing Of I-75 Bridge

SAGINAW (AP) — The U.S. Coast Guard has reportedly denied a request by the Michigan Highway Department to restrict weekend and holiday opening of the Zilwaukee Bridge on I 75 between Saginaw and Bay City.

Henrik E. Stafseth, State Highway Department director, said Friday he had been advised informally by Michigan congressmen that the petition was rejected by Adm. C. R. Bender, Coast Guard commandant.

The Highway Department made the request in February, citing studies of traffic volume and accidents over a period of years at the bridge site.

Stafseth said the department would continue to press for control of shipping and minimal bridge openings during peak weekend and holiday travel times.

Traffic Mishaps Claim 52 Lives

By The Associated Press Traffic accidents claimed 52 lives across the nation in the early hours of the three-day Labor Day weekend.

Fair and generally pleasant weather prevailed in most of the nation as the last long holiday of the summer began. Showers dampened parts of the Southwest and the Southeast, and there were traces of snow in high mountain areas of the West.

The counting period of traffic deaths began at 6 p.m. local time Friday and will end at midnight Monday.

Board, Teachers Review Report Of Fact-Finder

RAPID RIVER—The Rapid River Board of Education was scheduled to meet this afternoon to discuss the recommendations of a state-appointed fact-finder in the contract dispute with teachers of the school system.

No further meeting between the Board of Education and the Rapid River Education Association was scheduled, but scheduling of a joint meeting sometime over the Labor Day weekend remained a possibility.

Dr. William Barstow of Hancock, who sat with the board and teachers at a three and a half hour fact finding meeting Wednesday night in the Bay de Noc elementary school, Friday recommended a base salary of $7,100 for teachers with bachelor's degrees and a master's degree base of $7,600.

The bachelor's degree schedule under Barstow's recommendations would go to a top of $10,508 in 11 increments, while the master's schedule would reach $11,251 in 11 increments.

Full Insurance

Barstow also recommended full family medical insurance as needed paid by the Board of Education, but payments be directed to the insurer and nothing directly to teachers. He made no suggestion whatsoever regarding extra-duty salary.

"That should be negotiated between the parties," he said, pointing out that as an "outsider" he did not feel sufficiently familiar with local situations to render a judgment.

Members of the teaching staff met Friday to review the recommendations by Barstow, but made no comments public.

Ross Rhoads of the Education Association said, however, that the group had contacted state mediator Walter Quillico of Iron Mountain. He indicated that a mediation session over the weekend has not been ruled out.

The Board of Education at the fact-finding session said it has offered the RREA a $6,900 bachelor's base salary and a master's base of $7,375. The Education Association demands include a $7,300 base for bachelor's degree and a $600 differential to $7,900 base for master's degree.

The RREA also requested a $30 monthly allowance for insurance and an increase in extra-duty pay. The teachers said the board has offered no increases in either category.

Not Binding

The recommendations of the fact-finder are not binding on either party.

Barstow's "abbreviated" recommendations were telephoned to the Board of Education and to the teachers. A detailed report is not expected to be ready for several weeks.

Classes had been scheduled to begin in Rapid River last Monday, but the stalemate has delayed the opening.

Cambodia Yielding Since U.S. Pullout

PHNOM PENH (AP) — In the two months since U.S. troops pulled out of Cambodia, Gen. Lon Nol's government has steadily lost ground in its war against the Communists.

Washington has granted Phnom Penh $49 million in military aid and has committed limited U.S. air power to back up government troops in the field. But this has not halted, much less reversed, the deteriorating military and political situation.

The overriding impression is that the government's strategy of abandoning more than half the country to Communist control to insure the defense of the capital and the nation's heartland is not working well. The plan called for abandoning the entire northeast, most of the extreme north, and some areas that were once held by South Vietnamese and American troops.

Reds Hold North

The heartland starts southeast of Phnom Penh and runs in a wide belt to the northwest, taking in the rich rice- and fish-producing areas on both sides of Cambodia's huge lake, the Tonle Sap. Most of the country's population is centered in this area.

But nearly all of the north shore of the lake is controlled by the Communists. The government strongpoints at Siem Reap, 155 miles northwest of Phnom Penh, and Kompong Thom, 80 miles north of the capital, are not doing well. Roads to Siem Reap are out periodically and Kompong Thom, a provincial capital, has been surrounded for months. Government casualties have been heavy at Kompong Thom, and food is so short that soldiers and townspeople slaughtered the animals in the city's zoo for meat.

The Communists have made no serious attempt to attack Phnom Penh, but the city's defenses are not particularly strong. The capital is particularly wide open to rocket and mortar attacks from across the Mekong River to the east.

Highways Closed

Four of Cambodia's seven major highways have been closed almost continuously for three or more months. Highway 4, which links Phnom Penh with Kompong Som, the country's only remaining access to the ocean, remains open only because enemy troops have not blown one of the many lightly defended bridges running through the Elephant Mountains.

On the northern front, fishing areas populated mainly by ethnic Vietnamese have provided more or less willing recruits and transportation workers to the Communists, especially after er the Cambodians slaughtered many Vietnamese living in Cambodia during the early days of the war.

The government officially denies that the Khmer Rouge, the Cambodian followers of Prince Sihanouk, pose any problem. But field commanders again tell a different story.

Communist sources say 8 per cent of the Communist force is Cambodians.

American bombing in Cambodia has proved a mixed blessing. Massive attacks against Communist supply lines leading to Vietnam through Cambodia are now routine, and damage sometimes inevitably extends to civilian areas. Tactical strikes around Siem Reap are reported to have been one of the best recruiting points for the Communists, who claim that the Americans are out to conquer Cambodia and are destroying villages with their planes.

Nevertheless, experts comparing the war with the one in Vietnam say the Communists in Cambodia are fighting at little more than half speed. "The Communists have had Kompong Thom surrounded for three months," one Western expert said. "They could have taken it, but they haven't. One of the unwholesome side effects is that the government is getting cocky when it should be getting more frightened when it looks at the situation map.

Missed Lessons

"The way they have set up the defenses of Phnom Penh shows they haven't learned the lessons of Vietnam or figured out the logical consequences of Hanoi's brand of mobile warfare. If the Communists wanted, they could put a regiment in the royal palace on the night of their choosing if they were willing to accept the casualties."

One Western diplomat commented: "That the Communists have not done more, a lot more, in Cambodia seems due either to a political decision in Hanoi or a reluctance to suffer battlefield casualties which could better be spent in Vietnam. Or maybe they just aren't ready yet."

My Lai Charges Against Michigan Soldier Dropped

ATLANTA (AP) — Charges against a Michigan soldier growing out of the alleged 1968 massacre at My Lai were dismissed by the Army Friday, but another soldier was ordered to stand trial by court martial in the incident.

An Army spokesman at Ft. McPherson said the charge of premeditated murder against Cpl. Kenneth Schiel of Swartz Creek has been dismissed, and no further proceedings are anticipated in the case.

The spokesman said Sgt. Charles Hutto of Tallulah, La., has been ordered to stand trial on charges of assault with intent to commit murder and false swearing. No trial date has been set.

Charges alleging rape and murder against Hutto were dismissed, the spokesman said.

On Labor Day

Monday is Labor Day and this year labor is making headlines.

The big noise comes from Detroit where the United Auto Workers and the Big Three auto makers, General Motors, Ford and Chrysler, are engaged in their own special combat over a new contract. The auto companies made their proposals earlier this week and the UAW promptly termed GM's offer a mere "hiccup". A major strike against GM or Chrysler looms larger every day.

On other fronts, teachers and school boards in parts of the state are waging their annual tug-of-war, the Women's Liberation Movement is making noise about job equality, the Teamsters Union pension fund is making news and the Operating Engineers are on strike.

Now comes George Meany, president of the powerful AFL-CIO with the statement that the workers are angry over inflation and recession.

"The only answer to maldistribution of the wealth American workers help create is to give workers a bigger share of the pie," he growls. "And, in a single sentence, that's what organized workers are going to be seeking in collective bargaining this year — a bigger share of the pie."

Meany says production is falling, jobs are vanishing and soaring prices are pushing the cost of living to record heights with the result that the workers' buying power is steadily dropping and he blames the situation on corporate profits.

"The rich and the blue chip corporations were largely left untouched by the government's tight-money policies," he said. "Those who have money to lend are earning record profits. But the results for America's wage earners, pensioners, the poor and small businessmen have been anything but bright. In the 10 year period ending last summer, wages rose 34 percent, but inflation reduced that to 10 percent in real buying power. Over the same period of time, corporate profits rose 93 percent. We can't help but see that what caused the trouble is profit inflation and nothing else."

Meany may have a point, but may have missed others. Time magazine points out, for example, that since 1965 while hourly pay and benefits have climbed 25 percent in the auto industry productivity has risen only 9 percent. That means, of course, that it's costing more money per unit to manufacture a car. If the manufacturing cost is more, then prices must be increased to maintain the business.

It seems, today, that there is a rather unhealthy "do better than the Jones" attitude in the approach to wages, fringe benefits and working conditions. The result is a leap frog structure in which nobody seems to catch up or be ahead for long.

There seems to be an unhealthy situation which has developed in the overall wage structure when unskilled college students, for example, can direct traffic as a flagman on a summer construction project and earn a greater per hour salary than they'll earn once they complete their education. It's a great opportunity for students to pay their bills in school, but it does not seem equitable for the taxpayer who ultimately is paying the wage.

And it seems there is an unhealthy situation when employees can sit back and wait for substantial raises merely because of a new contract rather than because of advancement or improvement in skills.

Statement of problems, of course, is much simpler than providing solutions. When the loaf of bread costs more in the store, the raise is welcome no matter how it comes.

Sometime, however, the present spiral must be halted.

A questionnaire mailed by Congressman Philip Ruppe to residents of the 11th Congressional district turned up a surprising result. People who responded favored wage and price controls by better than a 3 to 1 majority.

The conclusion can't be avoided that people are tired of the rat race of rising prices and rising wages and rising prices, etc. If labor and industry can't control the situation on their own, the prospect is that government will try to do it for them.

It's something to ponder on this long, holiday weekend whether driving, playing golf, camping or attending Monday's Trades & Labor Council picnic at Pioneer Trail Park. Just don't ponder too deeply behind the wheel of your car.

That's Called Slavery

There seems too much confusion adrift these days about human rights and property rights, as though the two somehow or other were two different things.

A theological student, who had been on a self-imposed starvation diet of water, went into a grocery store in Washington the other day and demanded that the store give him food. To his credit the manager turned down the demand.

The student claimed it was his "natural human right" to take the food, a right he said was superior to any property rights of the store. He says he plans to sue the company to prove his principle.

What this protestor doesn't know, or cares not to admit, is that property rights are human rights, one and inseparable. Property is simply one form of human productivity. It is savings in tangible form, the result of labor.

It's amazing that a person of the cloth can claim the right to expropriate the fruits of another man's labor. What religious or ethical code can justify such a belief?

If the theology student really is concerned about the poor, he should be productive and turn over the fruits of his labor to the needy. That's charity and is considered an honorable and worthy gesture by virtually all religions.

79 YEARS OLD TODAY...STILL GROWING!

Milliken, Brickley Mirror Each Other

By DON HOENSHELL
Panax Capitol Bureau

LANSING — Gov. Milliken looked in the mirror and chose James H. Brickley as his running mate.

They're alike as their reflection.

Both occupy front seats in the moderate wing of the Republican party, both are well-educated heirs to family fortunes, both are family men in their own lives and both speak softly.

And both can carry the big stick when necessary. Milliken came to Lansing from Traverse City where he had a lifetime job in the Milliken Department Store, the J. H. Hudson's of the north country.

He served six years as a state senator, four as lieutenant governor and inherited the governor's office when former Gov. George Romney joined the Nixon administration in Washington.

Served in FBI
Brickley is a lawyer, served four years in the FBI, practiced law in Detroit, then in 1961 started six years on the Detroit City Council.

In the Senate, Milliken was often the only Republican voice speaking out for civil rights bills. On the city council, Brickley sponsored Detroit's famous "Brickley Anti-Block-Busting Ordinance."

Milliken rose through the political steps in Lansing. Brickley went from the council to chief assistant prosecutor in Wayne County, then to the federal post of U. S. District Attorney.

Brickley's family owns the string of Brickley Dairies in Detroit. In 1964 he told a reporter: "I want to make my own way and I have so far."

Strength Among Blacks
In the political jungles of Detroit, Brickley has vote-getting strength among the blacks where Milliken is unknown — a condition tending to create tension when planning a campaign.

Brickley is familiar with Detroit's problems and it was learned that he'll get major assignments in this area if he makes it to Lansing with Milliken.

Milliken during his search for a running mate said: "I want a man I can work closely with, who stands for the things I stand for, who could serve the people of Michigan in the way I am trying to serve."

"I want a man with the experience and understanding and with the compassion to deal with the numerous special assignments I believe the lieutenant governor should undertake."

Fits Guidelines
"I want a man with experience in administration and in coping with the problems of urban Michigan . . . who could bring special talents to bear on the critical problems facing every city in this state."

Brickley, at 41, fits Milliken's guidelines for the lieutenant governor's office. And he has the proper diffidence for taking over the No. 2 spot in state government.

When Milliken called him, Brickley already had a good job as U. S. District attorney — a stepping stone to a federal judgeship with a Republican in Washington. Why go for a state post?

"I was persuaded mostly by what I see in Gov. Milliken, a governor who is advancing one of the most comprehensive and ambitious programs in making this state relevant to all of its public needs," Brickley said.

Balance Needed
"I also see in the man a man who never ducks an issue and a man who holds authority and power with a great deal of dignity, the wave of the future in politics."

"I think he has proved he can make government work and I think that's important enough for me to make this move after he convinced me I could be of some assistance to him."

And Milliken needed Brickley to balance the ticket. Detroit's Brickley joins Traverse City's Milliken; Grand Rapids' William S. Farr Jr., the attorney general nominee, and Elm Hall's (rural Montcalm County) Senator Emil Lockwood, running for secretary of state.

Brickley represents the big city, Milliken the small town outside businessman, Farr the western side of the state and Lockwood the rural mid-state area.

Mrs. Lenore Romney, going for the United States Senate, is Bloomfield Hills society, the new industrialist elite.

It was left for Milliken to select Brickley who fits his own personal, political and geographical stimuli perfectly.

Strong Personality
Brickley is strong of personality but he's not one to push for favor or to try nudging No. 1 out of the spotlight.

He attended a pre-convention huddle with Ingham County Republican leaders seeking support.

"I need your help because I don't think I can pull it off by myself," he said.

It was pure Milliken. That's why Milliken saw Brickley while shaving one morning.

Letters To The Press

RESPECT THE FLAG

With the Upper Peninsula State Fair in the past for another year, I would like to recall what happened the night of the stock and modified races, of which I was a spectator in the grandstand, along with thousands of other anxious sports fans.

Because of the rain it took a while to get the track ready for racing, but in spite of the weather the fans were very cooperative.

It is customary at each race held to have everyone rise while the American Flag is flown and the National Anthem is played—as I looked to the North-East and West I could see very few people who showed little or no respect at all.

Where does it start, continue or end as far as life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness? Have the parents forgotten how to respect the flag? Has the Pledge of Allegiance failed in our schools these days? Years ago what was taught in the home at a very early age remained in the minds and hearts of the children throughout their life.

My criticism is not in no way a reflection on the part of the Racing Association; but most of the racing fans know what the racing flags represent, so why not the American flag?

Perhaps the fans could be reminded that when the National Anthem is played for any public event the American flag should be respected by standing at attention, a heart salute or bowed heads. Do they need to be reminded?

It takes but a few minutes for a racing driver to carry the American Flag around the track (which is customary), but if the fans do not know what to do or do not know what it means when they hear the National Anthem being played, then why even bother to carry the flag around the track?

The sight of our nation's flag in a brisk wind awakens a special thrill in my heart as it should in the hearts of all Americans. Our flag speaks to us of our remarkable heritage as a democracy where every citizen can have a voice in making the laws under which he lives.

Today our nation is troubled by world problems and by tensions at home.

Our problems are great, but I believe they can be solved. Why, because we live here in America and not in Russia or another country where a citizen cannot speak out because they do not have the precious heritage of freedom protected by our Constitution and our Bill of Rights.

There will be a few more races left to come, depending on the weather, and they will be back next year at the U. P. State Fair. Let's hope in our hearts that we will hail so proudly our star spangled flag (the symbol of a free and democratic people.)

The bidding:
West North East South
2♥ 3♥ 4♦ 5♦
Pass 5♣ Pass 5♣
Pass 6♣

Opening lead—five of diamonds.

Freak hands are a law unto themselves, and it is hard to bid them scientifically. However, North-South gave an excellent demonstration of the art when they arrived at a sound contract of six spades in this hand from a team of four match.

At the first table, West opened with a preemptive two heart bid. North had a huge variety of calls he could have made at this point with his 8-5-0-0 hand, but he elected to make a cuebid in hearts.

East also had a choice of bids over three hearts and decided to suppress his heart support for the moment in order to make a lead-directing bid of four diamonds. This suited South to a T and he doubled.

North did not of course stand for the double and ran to five clubs. Recognizing the situation for what it actually was, South bid five spades—he realized that North must have a practically all-black hand—and North raised him to six.

West led a diamond and South had no trouble making six for a score of 1,430 points.

The bidding at the second table was less protracted, but also less scientific. It went:

Here, also, declarer fared well. East led the ace of diamonds and North made twelve tricks easy as pie. East could have beaten the slam had he led a spade, but it is hard to blame him for failing to find this lead.

So the result was that South made six spades at one table and North made six clubs at the other table—even though East-West had three aces!

Candidates Ask Spending Limit For Campaign

DETROIT (AP) — Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., and Sander Levin, Democratic Party candidate for governor, have called for their Republican opponents to agree to a limit on money used for campaign broadcasts.

They asked that each Senate candidate be allowed to spend a maximum of $179,735 and each gubernatorial candidate up to $172,333.

They said the limits are those included in a bill being considered by Congress.

The bill calls for a maximum allowance of seven cents for airtime for each vote cast in the previous general election for the office. They said the Senate and House passed the bill, but that a Senate-House conference report on differences in the bill still must be approved.

They said the bill therefore "probably will not have much effect on the 1970 campaign" and called for the voluntary agreement on it with their opponents in Michigan.

Ann Landers

Youngster Baffled By His 'Tightness'

Dear Ann Landers: Please tell me if there is something wrong with my mind, like mental illness, I mean. I am twelve years old and I am so cheap it is disgusting. I just love it when somebody buys me an ice cream cone or gives me half a candy bar. And I am thrilled when I get a present of any kind. But when it comes to spending a dime on someone else I can always think of a dozen reasons why I shouldn't.

I save almost all my allowance. Right now I have $43 put away. On Mother's Day I made up a poem so I wouldn't have to spend any money on a present. My mother was very pleased and even said it was a better gift than anything money could buy. On Father's Day I did the same thing. The poem I composed for my dad wasn't as good as Mom's and I think maybe he caught on to me.

Please explain why a 12-year-old should act like this. Will I outgrow it?—Cheapskate.

(P.S. I asked my Mom for a postage stamp to mail this letter although I have stamps of my own. See what I mean?)
Dear Frank: Yeah, I see what you mean—and you are not going to outgrow it. You'll probably get worse unless you make a conscious effort to improve. Decide what you consider your responsibilities (Apprentice a Mother's Day gift falls into this category, although it need not, then force yourself to act on it. After a while, you will establish a pattern of "coming through" when you feel you should and it won't be so painful.

Dear Ann Landers: I was going with a man I loved very much (still do). A couple of months ago, I thought for sure I was pregnant. I was certain he would marry me but I was wrong. Instead he gave me $2,500 and told me I could do what I wanted — put a down payment on a house, get an abortion or leave town. Marriage wasn't one of the choices he offered.

I decided to buy a house and stay in town, hoping he'd change his mind. Now I find I am not pregnant and never was. I was too ashamed to admit the truth so I lied and said I had a miscarriage. He believed me. Last week he told me in plain language that our romance is finished because he cannot afford any more scares like the one I gave him. He also said, "For a 26-year-old girl you are too dumb for me."

I am renting the house and giving him a percentage of the rent. But I feel guilty because I lied to him. Should I tell him

Jet streams, rivers of air, play an important part in the Earth's air circulation. The high altitude winds help distribute heat more uniformly. Without this distribution, the air at the Equator could become impossibly hot, while some temperate regions might freeze.

Jim's Battle To Overcome MD Is Personal Affair

It's the Jerry Lewis Telethon to fight muscular dystrophy — but here at home James LaPalm, 13, of Escanaba Rte. 1, figures prominently in the battle too.

For Jim has been afflicted with muscular dystrophy since babyhood and he is putting up a courageous effort to conquer the disease. He is a student at the John A. Lemmer School.

Jim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John LaPalm noticed the boy's affliction when he first started walking. They were alert to the symptoms because another son, an older brother of Jim's — also suffered from muscular dystrophy. He died three years ago.

One of the quirks of muscular dystrophy causes it to afflict the boys in the LaPalm family. Jim has four sisters at home.

"He's a happy, quiet boy," said Mrs. D. Gregory Main, who is the local pledge coordinator for the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Weekend Telethon. "He likes to go fishing — and fishes while sitting in his wheelchair."

Through the cooperation of Muscular Dystrophy's southwest U.P. Chapter with headquarters at Iron Mountain, Jim is to have a new wheelchair.

"He selected it himself, including the color and all of the special things on it," Mrs. Main reports.

The telethon with a million dollars worth of stage, screen, television and sports talent, starts Sunday night—tomorrow night — at 10:30. It will be seen here over station WLUK, Channel 11.

Jerry Lewis says he hopes to achieve a goal of $4 million to benefit Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America.

MDAA annually spends more than $2 million for research and an even larger sum for services to patients and their families.

If you would like to volunteer your services to help at one the telethon pledge centers, contact Mrs. Main at 786-5385.

Opening lead—jack of hearts.

This deal occurred in the match between Poland and Iceland during the European championship played in Baden-Baden in 1963.

The Polish North-South pair bid and made a highly optimistic slam, and had they accomplished the equivalent feat several times more during the tournament their team would undoubtedly have finished even more creditably than their final position of third in the 18-country field.

It would seem that South's jump to four spades constituted a sizable exaggeration of his values, but, since the outcome was a happy one, it becomes difficult to censure him severely.

It is also hard to fault West for his lead of the jack of hearts, which seemed to be the normal lead to make. Declarer won with the ace, ruffed a heart in dummy, and cashed the A-K-Q of diamonds on which he discarded the J-6 of clubs.

After ruffing a club, a heart, a club and another heart, declarer found himself in dummy with this position:

North
♥ Q 10 9
♦ Q 10 9 6
♣ A K J 8

Declarer led another club from dummy, ruffing with the eight. Though West was able to overruff with the nine, he had to concede the rest of the tricks.

The outcome would have been altogether different had West been sufficiently inspired to start with the king and another club to East's ace. Another club lead from East would then have resulted in South's going down three.

Winters along Iceland's coastal areas, where most of the population live, are milder than in Minnesota. A branch of the warm Gulf Stream swirls away much of the Arctic chill.

Tate Prosecutor Pulled Off Case

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The veteran prosecutor who mapped the state's case against four defendants in the Sharon Tate murder trial has been pulled off the case, reportedly because of his statements to the news media.

The district attorney suddenly removed Chief Prosecutor Aaron H. Stovitz in midtrial Friday saying he was needed for administrative duties.

Sources said Dist. Atty. Evelle Younger had been upset about out-of-court statements by the two prosecutors.

Stovitz, 45, chief of the district attorney's trials division, had been on the case, assisted by Vincent Bugliosi, since the actress and six others were found slain in August 1969.

Charles M. Manson 35, leader of a hippie-style clan, and three women followers have been on trial since July, charged with murder-conspiracy.

Joked With Newsmen
Stovitz often traded jokes with reporters in corridors outside court.

Early this week he was quoted by some newsmen as saying that testimony by defendant Susan Atkins about her health was "a performance worthy of a Sarah Bernhardt." Miss Atkins told the judge she had stomach pains and was too ill to continue. A doctor said she was in good health.

Stovitz said later this comment, made in the corridor, was off the record.

A source in the district attorney's office said Younger has received criticism from the legal profession about comments by prosecutors. The judge has issued an order barring principals in the trial from discussing it publicly.

Cited By Court
At one point, Stovitz was charged with contempt of court after giving an interview to an underground newspaper, but there has been no ruling in the case.

Younger said Stovitz has "a very important position on our executive staff. He's been away from this responsibility too long ... We think the change will be beneficial all around ... I will have no further comment."

Bugliosi, 35, dapper and prone to dramatic courtroom rhetoric, was named chief prosecutor in the case. Younger said Stovitz, replacement will be Donald A. Musich, 34, a deputy district attorney with no previous involvement in the case.

Power Failures Blacken Cities

By The Associated Press
Electrical blackouts hit portions of downtown Grand Rapids and Muskegon Friday.

In both cases, the power failures were due to workmen hitting high voltage cables.

The Grand Rapids blackout, which lasted about 30 minutes, occurred shortly before noon when a city worker's jack hammer drilled into a live, 7,200-volt cable across from the Civic Auditorium.

James Weimerink, 25, was hospitalized with third-degree burns over much of his upper body. Other workers said they thought the power had been cut off before they began working on sewers.

In Muskegon, a crane's boom crashed into a main power line shortly after 1 p.m. It triggered a 45-minute blackout covering about eight blocks of the downtown area. No one was hurt.

During the blackout, telephone service in the area was cut off. The outage halted the Muskegon Chronicle's press run briefly.

ELMER'S SUPER VALU

Over 4,000 Persons Visit Delta Museum

By JEANENE SCHMELING
(The Delta County Historical Museum is ending its 1970 season this holiday weekend. Hours are 1 to 9 daily. The attendants are Miss Schmeling and Miss Pat Douglas.)

The Delta County Historical Museum has entertained a steady stream of visitors from its opening at the end of May to the present and we expect this to continue to the closing on this coming Labor Day.

The total number of visitors passed 4,000 and many were tourists coming from 33 states and such countries as Canada, Mexico, England, Scotland, the Panama Canal Zone, Germany and Japan. Many tourists were impressed by the large amount of material on display and commented on how it helped provide important background information about our county.

Visitors returning to the museum remarked on the expansion and development that has taken place there, such as the new wing on the building and the increased number of displays.

Many Donations
Locally, several classes of students and Scout groups visited the museum in June and again after school opened this month. During the summer, classes from the summer school programs also made the Delta County Museum one of their interesting points of visit.

Donations and gifts to the museum this summer have been numerous and the Delta County Historical Society appreciates the interest such donors show in the museum.

Many photos, books, tools and other articles which depict the local industries which made Delta County prosperous were donated. This summer the museum acquired logging and drafting tools and many items from the early Great Lakes shipping and railroad eras are just a few examples. Other "activities" in the area are represented by a collection of bottles from the Escanaba Brewing Co., which once operated here.

One of the important and certainly the most unique addition to the museum this year was the 600-year-old Indian skeleton found on Summer Island in 1969. The museum is fortunate to be chosen to display the reassembled burial, loaned for display here by Summer Science Camp.

Files Consulted
This year the Delta County Historical Society purchased a tape recorder and slide projector to aid presentation of historical programs and preserve important data. The stories of various subjects in Delta County—such as The Elliott Papers—have been taped, and the Society is now starting to do personal histories of various county pioneers whose individual interviews would add local color and important material to the museum's history files.

Written history files in the museum are available to the public for anyone interested in researching family histories and subjects of personal interest. The files have been used this summer by persons who wished to complete family genealogies, prepare special interest programs, and to just satisfy their curiosity on items brought to their attention by something on display in the museum.

This busy summer season at the museum will end with the closing on Monday, Sept. 7.

Dzendzel, Loser In Primary Vote, Asks Recount

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan Bell Telephone Co. filed new rate schedules, designed to produce an extra $14.8 million in revenues annually, with the Michigan Public Service Commission.

The increase, the telephone company's first general rate hike since 1960, was approved by a 2-1 commission vote Monday.

The utility said the new rates would not go into effect until approved. Michigan Commerce Department officials said they probably will not take effect until October or November.

Michigan Bell Vice President Lloyd J. Haynes said, "every effort has been made to simplify the new rate structure so that rates may be more easily understood by customers. The new rates also are designed so that customers pay on the basis of the amount of service and facilities they actually use."

In the rate schedules, customers get a discount for dialing their own long distance calls. In addition, the three-minute initial period for long distance calls within Michigan has been dropped, with all calls being charged by the minute.

There will be a standard $9 charge for installing, moving or changing service, including customer-requested number changes.

Michigan Bell said the new long distance rates in the state range from five cents a minute for calls less than 20 miles up to 35 cents a minute for calls of more than 200 miles.

DETROIT (AP) — State Sen. Raymond D. Dzendzel of Detroit has asked for a recount of the controversial Wayne County primary election, in which he lost by nearly 7,000 votes.

Dzendzel, a Democrat who had earlier launched a Senate inquiry into Detroit's tangled punch-card balloting, said: "Regardless of the outcome, people have the right to know what happened in the Detroit election."

Dzendzel, seeking his sixth Senate term, lost 8,848 to 15,739 to State Rep. Jack Faxon in the northwest Detroit 7th District Democratic contest.

He asked for a recount of all 160 precincts in his district, saying his own count showed 307 ballots cast in his precinct but only 237 for senator.

"We found similar gaps in most of the other precincts, and that's why I'm asking for all 160 to be checked," he said.

Two narrowly defeated Wayne County commissioners also have asked for recounts of the primary.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew will speak in Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 16.

Agnew's first campaign swing also will take him to Wyoming, Nevada and New Mexico, three other states where the Republican hope to capture Democratic Senate seats this November.

Lenore Romney, wife of Housing and Urban Development Secretary George Romney, hopes to unseat the Democratic incumbent, Sen. Philip Hart, in the November election.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall, notified the Justice Department had cleared him of conflict of interest, says the investigation originated in the files of his successor, Walter J. Hickel.

Udall, accusing the former Alaska governor of trying to ruin his reputation, also charged Hickel with deliberately publicizing a supposedly personal letter to President Nixon last May in which Hickel urged the administration to listen more closely to young people.

Hickel, Udall said in an interview, is "the only Cabinet officer I know of that deliberately, systematically tried to put his predecessor in jail."

The Justice Department never acknowledged Udall was being investigated. But Udall said Friday he was notified by the Department a month ago there was no wrongdoing in his approval of a $550,000 contract to Lawrence Halprin Associates of San Francisco for development of a land-use plan in the Virgin Islands.

By HELOISE
Dear Heloise:
We just bought a new king-sized bed and so I have a money-saving idea to share with you.
Take the length of a full-sized fitted bottom sheet and put it on the width of the king mattress. Do the same with another sheet at the opposite end. Pull taut and pin where the sheets meet in the middle. Then remove the sheets and sew a seam where the pins are. Cut off the extra, which isn't very much.
For the top sheet, sew two full-sized flat sheets together along one length.
Now you have a set of sheets for a king-sized bed and have saved at least $10.00.
Muriel Enoch

Letter Of Thought
Dear Heloise:
One should take time to laugh, for it is the singing that helps with life's loads.
Ethel

Dear Folks:
Do listen a bit and help save somebody some money—namely, Uncle Sam...
A postmaster just told me that letters are run through canceling machines and that when we use a paper clip, when attaching a check to a bill, etc., if we would write "Hand Stamp" on the outside of envelopes, it would save lots of repair on their electric canceling machines!
So, do be kind enough to write in bold letters on the outside of the envelope anytime you enclose a coin, paper-clip, etc.
Heloise

Dear Heloise:
Soaking potted plants (or trays of new plants) from below can be a tedious job for those who haven't an outdoor sink of some sort.
Well, I found that a metal wheelbarrow partly filled with water is ever so handy to use as a soaker. And because it's moveable, it saves on the back by not having to lug those heavy trays about.
Just be sure to dry it out between soakings to prevent rust.

Soft pie meringue has a way of slipping even though correctly made from basic proportions of 2 tablespoons of superfine sugar to 1 egg white and beaten until the sugar crystals are completely dissolved. To prevent a slip, swirl the whipped topping onto moist pies while the filling is still hot. This helps cook the bottom of the meringue—which otherwise doesn't occur during its short baking time—before any moisture draining from the egg foam can form. Also, spread the meringue onto the inside edge of the crust, including all the notches in the rim to provide a non-shrinking seal.

MANISTIQUE

Fish Die-off Noted:

Lamprey Control Rated 'Good Job'

The Manistique River received lamprey control treatment Tuesday which the Department of Interior termed "a good job" in cleaning out the predatory eel population.

Crews from the U.S. Bureau of Commercial Fisheries in Marquette introduced a toxicant spray poison — identified as TFM Lamprey Larvacide — into the river at the old Soo Line Railroad bridge off N. Cedar St. Before the poison was sprayed the Fisheries Bureau spent two days doing preliminary checks to determine water level and the amount of chemical necessary for an effective treatment, according to Robert Braem, Fisheries Bureau.

Braem said the treatment cost in the neighborhood of $10,000 and effectively cut into the huge lamprey eel population (estimated between 50-100,000 in the river. The cost was less since the water level is low, Braem added.

Braem said that while some game fish were overcome by the poison and "bellied-up" this did not mean that the remaining fish were unsuitable for eating. Some of the dead fish his crews found (a total of 72, he said, including 27 walleyes and 35 cohoes) may have been in the immediate area where the poison was sprayed and received a double dose of the chemical.

Several local fishermen were alarmed when they found dead fish floating in the river and at the harbor Wednesday morning and contacted Rep. Charles Varnum.

Varnum talked to Braem and also called Jack Bales, Fish Division, Department of Natural Resources in Lansing, to discuss the situation. Varnum said he received assurances from Bales that the lost fish would be "adequately replaced" next spring. The DNR planted over 50,000 cohoes in the Manistique River last spring.

The Fisheries Bureau treated the Marblehead Creek, between Manistique and Gulliver, Wednesday and termed the creek as "one of the worst breeding grounds for eels."

Soil District Tour Scheduled

The annual Schoolcraft County Soil Conservation District tour will be Sunday, Sept. 13, in the Germfask area with visits to three farms. The tour will begin at 2:30 and conclude after a 5:30 stop at the St. Theresa Church in Germfask for a snack.

High Hill Farm, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Everett Losey, will be the first stop. Visitors will view wildlife ponds, a successful wildlife food planting and a small Christmas tree plantation.

The next stop will be the John Zellar Jr. farm where the owner will discuss the new Farm Bureau beef marketing project, show a pole barn under construction and some good silage corn.

The group then moves to the Luce County farm of Wilfred Jacobs, off the 10 Curves Road, where Jacobs has a good crop of red kidney beans, Navy (pea) beans and potatoes. Jacobs moved to this area recently from the Saginaw Valley area.

Any interested persons desiring to make the tour should contact the County Extension Office or telephone 341-5050.

Moon Not Cheese, Scientists Say, But It's Close

DURHAM, England (AP) — Scientists studying moon rocks brought back from lunar missions by American Apollo astronauts have found that "the nearest thing on earth to the moon, so far as the transmission of seismic waves are concerned, is cheese."

British geologist professor George Malcolm Brown told the British Association today that he had analysed some moon rocks and found they had a lot in common with a cheese called Swiss emmentaler.

The MEA said that contracts for 81 districts out of 529 it represents have not been negotiated.

The Michigan Federation of Teachers said there were no settlements in about nine of its elementary and school districts and four junior colleges it represents.

The Michigan Federation has only one school system on strike, which is at Highland Park, affecting 429 teachers and 7,000 students.

The MEA said its strike-affected districts other than Kalamazoo are Westwood, 178 teachers and 5,125 students; New Haven, 69 teachers and 1,739 students; Romeo, 163 teachers and 3,797 students; Warren Wood, 395 teachers and 8,958 students; Alpena, 382 teachers and 8,924 students; and Rapid River, 29 teachers and 572 students.

The strike by road and sewer construction workers has halted work on over $500 million worth of road, sewer and airport construction projects throughout the state.

Big Bay School Talks Stalled

NAHMA — Negotiations are at a standstill today in the Big Bay de Noc school dispute and "nothing short of a miracle will guarantee the opening of school Tuesday morning," according to Supt. of Schools Frank Stupak.

The superintendent said that while negotiations have completely broken down, the board is still agreeable to any meeting with the teachers.

Although no talk sessions are scheduled for the weekend, Stupak said he would be available to meet with the teachers. Stupak said the teachers have rejected board proposals that they begin work under last year's salary schedule with a "no strike" clause and continue talks or that they sign the pact negotiated earlier.

Strikes Affect 55,000 Students

By The Associated Press Teacher strikes affecting more than 55,000 elementary and high school students continued Friday at eight school districts, but representatives of the state's teacher associations described the situation as not as serious as in recent years.

Populous Kalamazoo was affected by a walkout Friday, after contract talks broke down. The district has 1,070 teachers for its 19,000 students.

All school functions were suspended indefinitely at Kalamazoo, where classes had been slated to start next Tuesday.

In addition, a strike involving 160 teachers and 5,500 students continued at Schoolcraft Community College. A "lockout" remained in effect at Big Bay de Noc in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, involving 28 teachers and 598 pupils.

Soviet Threat Helps Budget:

U.S. Navy's Best Friends In Congress Are Russians

WASHINGTON (AP) — When it comes to dealing with Congress, asserts one Pentagon official, the American Navy's secret weapon is the Soviet navy.

"It always seems the Russians are steaming off the coast at appropriations time," the official said. "Don't kid yourself, the Russian navy is the American Navy's best friend."

The comment points out the Navy's strategy of plumping Congress for more money to expand and modernize the aging U.S. fleet by raising the spectre of growing Soviet naval strength.

Russians Building But the Navy's concern over the Soviet warships isn't exactly trumped up. The Soviets have come a long way in a short time.

It wasn't long ago when Moscow's archaic fleet rarely ventured from home waters of the Arctic Ocean and Baltic Sea. But the Soviets today are second only to the United States as the world's foremost naval power.

A Soviet navy task force steaming towards the Caribbean this week demonstrates anew, as Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird said Wednesday, the Soviets' intention to mount an all-ocean navy.

The five-ship task force, including two missile-firing ships and an amphibious landing craft, is the third Russian force since last summer and the second since April to cruise in America's backyard.

Permanent Presence Some Defense Department officials believe these exercises may serve to establish a permanent Soviet naval presence in the Caribbean, once considered an American lake.

The situation is somewhat similar to the Soviet build-up in the Mediterranean Sea following the 1967 Arab-Israeli war. Prior to that conflict, the Mediterranean was dominated by the American Sixth Fleet.

The presence of the Soviet flag in Western waters is constant since April to cruise in America's backyard.

Rockfest Scrapped Songer, who was informed of Dalton's decision Thursday, said he intends to abide by the order "fully." But he said in his opinion the Sunday political rally is not prohibited by the restraining order, and even if it is, the First Amendment guarantees of freedom of speech and assembly would protect him from court action.

Songer had initially scheduled a rock test for this Labor Day weekend, but he scrapped plans for the event when the request for the restraining order was filed by one county prosecutor.

Songer announced he would hold the political rally "tuned to the tastes of the 18-year-olds" instead.

A park spokesman said signs have been posted stating that drug use and possession and nudity are not allowed in the park.

Claim Rejected It was these activities which allegedly occurred with abandon during the August festival that formed the basis for the restraining order, as well as widespread criticism from political leaders throughout the state.

In announcing his decision, Dalton rejected Songer's claim that the three-day August festival constituted a single event and as such was insufficient evidence to establish a nuisance.

"The court cannot, in good conscience, consider the events of Aug. 7-9 as one event," the judge ruled. "In fact, it is the firm belief of this court that no chancellor could accept such a defense claim in good conscience."

F-111 To Join NATO Forces WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon sources say the Air Force will begin next week using the trouble-plagued F111 fighter-bombers to modernize and bolster NATO forces in Europe.

A squadron of 24 planes is expected to be delivered to the U.S. 3rd Air Force at Upper Hayford, England, by the end of the year.

The Air Force has delayed the movement of F111s for a year because of troubles with the swing-wing plane. The 352-plane fleet has been grounded since December because one of the jets crashed in Nevada after a wing fell off.

Rally Scheduled At Goose Lake Despite Ruling

JACKSON, Mich. (AP) — Jackson County authorities say they will not interfere with plans for an old-fashioned political rally scheduled for Sunday at Goose Lake Park, site of a controversial rock festival last August.

But Paul R. Adams, chief assistant prosecutor for the county, said Friday the prosecutor's office will determine after the rally whether to bring contempt of court action against park owner Richard Songer.

Jackson County Circuit Judge John C. Dalton announced Friday he had granted a preliminary injunction barring Songer from leasing or permitting use of the park for "any meeting, show or other purposes whatsoever..."

Rockfest Scrapped Songer, who was informed of Dalton's decision Thursday, said he intends to abide by the order "fully." But he said in his opinion the Sunday political rally is not prohibited by the restraining order, and even if it is, the First Amendment guarantees of freedom of speech and assembly would protect him from court action.

Songer had initially scheduled a rock test for this Labor Day weekend, but he scrapped plans for the event when the request for the restraining order was filed by one county prosecutor.

Songer announced he would hold the political rally "tuned to the tastes of the 18-year-olds" instead.

A park spokesman said signs have been posted stating that drug use and possession and nudity are not allowed in the park.

Claim Rejected It was these activities which allegedly occurred with abandon during the August festival that formed the basis for the restraining order, as well as widespread criticism from political leaders throughout the state.

In announcing his decision, Dalton rejected Songer's claim that the three-day August festival constituted a single event and as such was insufficient evidence to establish a nuisance.

"The court cannot, in good conscience, consider the events of Aug. 7-9 as one event," the judge ruled. "In fact, it is the firm belief of this court that no chancellor could accept such a defense claim in good conscience."

actment of what the United States has done for years—frown its flag in Russian waters.

Ten years ago the United States began sending a couple destroyers into the Black Sea to make the point that it wasn't a Russian lake. The twice-yearly voyages generally consisted of two destroyers.

But last summer the Russians sent a seven-ship task force to Cuba and the Gulf of Mexico, sailing within 40 miles of the Louisiana coast.

Return To Sea U.S. Navy officers, regarding this as a demonstration of the lengthening Soviet naval reach into waters long dominated by the United States, then cut the interval between the Black Sea voyages to three months.

When the Russians returned to the Caribbean in April, two U.S. destroyers returned to the Black Sea in May.

This needling between the two superpowers apparently will go on as Russia continues building its fleet and displaying its muscle.

"The flag of the Soviet navy now proudly flies over the oceans of the world," the commander of the Soviet navy declared recently. "Sooner or later, the United States will have to understand that it no longer has mastery of the seas."

Mom Says 18th Child 'Enough'

OXNARD, Calif. (AP) Booker T. Lee, one of 34 children, and his wife, one of nine, have become parents of their 18th child.

Ethel Mae Lee, 39, said from her hospital bed Friday: "The Lord has been good to us, but enough is enough."

Her husband, a 48-year-old carpenter, agreed.

Their latest child, Alisa Collette, is three days old.

The first child also was a girl, Shirley Diane, 21.

Lee said the family has had some "rough times" because of instability in the construction business.

The parents and their 11 girls and seven boys live in a four bedroom house. His salary, he said, ranges from $90 in bad times, to $200 weekly when work is plentiful.

The three eldest girls have joined the Youth Corps. Each earns $22 a week while in training. "That helps a lot," said Lee.

Burglar Gets $780 In Coins

A thief who pried open a door to gain entrance to the Al Dagena residence at 1410 N. 20th St., made off with coins in the amount of $780, it is reported to city police.

There was $500 in one-half dollars, over $100 in change, and $180 in Canadian money. The burglary was discovered and reported to police at 11:45 p.m. Friday.

Strong Second Half Wins For Eskymos

BY DON HOWES
Sports Editor

MARQUETTE — Coach Jerry Cvenegros' Escanaba Eskymos turned the lights out on the Marquette Redmen in the second half here Friday night and put on a fabulous touchdown drive in the last quarter to upend the Redmen 13-7 in the season opener.

A dressing room sign proclaims "When the going gets tough, the tough get going" and that best sums up the brand of heads-up football that the Eskymos played in the last half to clinch their victory.

With the Redmen picking up momentum after scoring a last minute touchdown that tied the game seconds before the half, the Eskymos broke the spell by mounting their touchdown drive late in the third quarter and all but shattered the Redmen's enthusiasm when Bill Suriano plunged over from the one-yard line with little over eight minutes left in the game.

Suriano, who played a whale of a game for the Eskymos, rambled up the middle for 114 yards in 18 carries and also played the entire game both offensively and defensively after Mike Blazek bruised his shoulder, which will force him to the sidelines for a couple of weeks.

Touchdown Drive
Escanaba broke into the scoring column in the first period. After Suriano on the first drive streaked for 32 yards to the Marquette 38, the Eskymos lost possession of the ball on the next play and the Redmen took over the pigskin for the first time.

Two plays later Marquette's quarterback, Dick Goodney, fumbled and Escanaba's Gary Brawley recovered. After losing seven yards in the next series of downs, the Eskymos were forced to punt, but a roughing the kicker penalty, gave the Eskymos the ball right back on the Marquette 28. Three plays later veteran quarterback Tom Kangas threw a pitch out to Doug Howard who scampered 19 yards for the first Eskymo score. Kangas' placement made it 7-0.

Redmen Score
After exchanging the ball back and forth, the Redmen began mounting their touchdown drive late in the second period with Kurt Albrecht, Marquette's leading ground gainer with 108 yards in 25 carries, rambling over from the two-yard line with 11 seconds left in the half. Goodney kicked the point with the half ending in a 7-7 tie.

Whatever happened in the locker room at half time is beyond my knowledge as the Eskymos after a weary defensive stand in the first half in which Marquette's hard running back Albrecht ran over the Eskymo linemen for 81 yards, met the Redmen head on for the next two quarters. It was only a matter of time before one team was going to wear the other team down, both physically and mentally.

Kangas opened the second half by kicking 54 yards to the Marquette eight. On the very first play Albrecht was stopped cold by tackler John McInerney and on the next play he was stopped cold again this time by big Gary Brawley and from then on the yardage became tougher and tougher for Albrecht as the Eskymo defense was at its peak.

Escanaba took over on the next series of plays on its own 40 and on second and five Kangas threw an aerial to Rick Jensen good for 27 yards. However the Redmen line also toughened up and took over the ball when Escanaba failed to connect on a fourth down play.

Defensive Struggle
Marquette came roaring back down the field a few plays later and on a third and eighth play went for the bomb but a very alert blocked pass attempt on the part of John Vogt ruined the Redmen drive and the Eskymos took over on their own 35 after quarterback Goodney fumbled.

With 2:25 left to go in the third quarter, the Eskymos began their final touchdown drive which gave them the victory.

In the drive, Rick Brooks started off by picking up five yards running off left tackle and on the next play Suriano rambled 13 yards up the middle of the Marquette line and the Eskymos were once again in Redmen territory.

With the ball on the Marquette 44 and only seconds remaining in the third period, Suriano once again blasted his way up the middle for a 10-yard gain and another first down as the quarter ended.

Final Touchdown
With the ball on the Marquette 24 as the final period began, Brooks plunged up the middle for one yard and a very important first down. Two plays later Kangas on a good fake handed off to Howard who scampered 10 yards to the Marquette eight and another first down.

On third and three for a first down and six for the touchdown Kangas on a quarterback sneak brought the ball to the one where on the next play Suriano blasted himself along with a couple of Redmen tacklers into the end zone.

The big play of the game came for Escanaba with about 57 seconds left in the game when Marquette went for the bomb again but an alert Dan Necci, who played a real fine game at the guard position, snared the ball out of the air as time ran out for the Redmen.

Emeralds Upended In Season Opener

MANISTIQUE—A strong defense and a potent offense powered the preseason favorites in the Great Lakes Conference, the Ishpeming Hematites, to a 32-6 victory for the Manistique Emeralds here Friday night in the 1970 opener for both schools.

Ishpeming picked up a total of 317 yards in the game compared to the Emeralds 134 with veteran back Tom Massie scoring three touchdowns for the Hematites.

Ishpeming came out roaring right from the start, as within two minutes they had their first score on the board, when Massie broke tackle and raced 40 yards to paydirt.

Early in the second quarter Massie scored again this time on a two yard plunge and also converted on a two-point option play that put the Hematites on top 14-0. Within minutes the Hematites were knocking the Emeralds on the goal line again, and again Massie took the leather in from six yards out and the Ishpeming eleven were out front 20-0.

Manistique's only touchdown came at the close of the second quarter when Kendall Neeson smashed the center of the Ishpeming line for a seven yard score.

Ishpeming continued to dominate the game in the second half both offensively and defensively. The Hematites wing-back Gries galloped into the end zone from about 18 yards out late in the third quarter to give the Hematites a comfortable 26-6 lead entering the final stanza.

Fullback Mammy led the final drive for Ishpeming in the last period when he plunged into the end zone from about three yards out.

Statistic wise, Ishpeming had 17 first down to 4 for Manistique and had an edge in every department for the entire game.

Pass, Punt, Kick Test Registration Begins

The Escanaba Jaycees announce that registration has started for the 1970 Punt, Pass & Kick Competition in the showroom of Northern Motor Company. In making the announcement, Joe Heller and Bill DeHaan, co-chairmen, said: "We're looking forward to a big local PP&K competition in Escanaba on Oct. 3, 1970. We hope all the boys 8-13 years of age in this area will come in to register and take part."

Last year over 180 boys participated and two made it to the regionals in Milwaukee.

Heller and DeHaan pointed out that PP&K — throughout its six levels of competition — is free of any charge, and that a boy need only have a parent or his guardian accompany him to the showroom to register.

"Our competition here will have 1st, 2nd and 3rd place trophies for boys in each of the six age groups, or 18 trophies in all," said Heller and DeHaan. "Increasing each boy's chances of winning is the fact that he competes only against other boys in his own age group."

"Of course there is no body contact in PP&K. It's punting, passing and place kicking for distance and points, just as the name says. First place winners in each age group in our competition will go on to the zone competition. And from there, top winners go on up the ladder through district, area, division and national finals," they said.

"This year, the national finals will be held in Los Angeles at the pro All-Star Game, January 24. Finalists get an all-expense-paid trip to Los Angeles for themselves and their parents, plus a special tour of Disneyland, a Banquet of Champions celebration, and the chance to meet some of the top players and coaches in professional football. Naturally, we hope some of our Escanaba PP&K winners will make it all the way to the finals," Heller and DeHaan said.

Each boy upon registering receives a free PP&K Tips Book. In the 1970 edition, there are competition tips by NFL stars Dave Lee, Bill Nelsen and Fred Cox plus all-around suggestions from Coaches of the Year Hank Stram and Bud Grant. The Tips Book also includes complete PP&K rules and helpful conditioning exercises for contestants.

PP&K registration will close at Northern Motor Company on Oct. 2.

Five prizes will be awarded in the Championship Division and an equal number of prizes will be given winners in each of the five flights.

Eagles Beat Rudyard For First Time Ever

RUDYARD — The Engadine Eagles made football history Friday night when they blasted Rudyard 16-6 in an Eastern U.P. Conference clash. The victory was the first ever since Engadine High School has been in existence over the Rudyard football team.

Coach Rod Carlson said he's been waiting 10 years to turn the trick on the Bulldogs and today the team and the coaching staff feels that they have met their first objective and succeeded and that this could turn out to be a good year for the Eagles.

Engadine broke the game wide open in the first quarter against the Bulldogs when Gus Fillman after Jack Gribbell recovered a Rudyard fumble on the Rudyard 39 shot off left tackle for the 39 yards and the score.

The extra point attempted failed.

Within minutes the Eagles were again knocking on the Bulldog's door as the Rudyard kicker was tackled on his own 35. Three plays later Gene Salter picked up two and then Bigger hit Salter for a 15-yard pass play and a first down. Running back Fillman then rambled in from the 15, and made a two point conversion and the Eagles were out in front 14-0.

The second quarter was an exchange back and forth and

Likely Starters Listed For NMU Scrimmage

MARQUETTE, Mich.—With pre-season practice past the midway point, probable starting lineups are beginning to take shape for head coach Rolie Dotsch and his staff at Northern Michigan.

Defense has been a prime concern to Dotsch after his 1969 squad gave up 224 points, second highest opponent output in history, during a 5-5 season.

Today when the Wildcats go through their second heavy scrimmage, Dotsch plans to start a defensive unit that will have several new faces and assignment changes from the one that finished the season last year.

Seniors Pete Bovan (Oscoda) and Doug Peterson (Stambaugh) will be at the ends. Bovan was a linebacker last year and Peterson played most of the season at end. They'll be backed by freshman Gary McCullough (Youngstown, O.) and sophomore Bruce Magnuson (Marquette, Wis.). Junior Frank Holes (Bay City Central) returns at one tackle while freshman Tom Bush (Lansing Sexton) takes over the other post. Junior Ken Schuetz (Suring, Wis.) and another freshman, Mike DeSpirito (East Boston, Mass.) are the backup men.

Anchoring the middle of the line is sophomore transfer Guy Falkenhagen (Bridgeport) backed by senior Dave Brackett (Lathrup), a defensive end last season.

There are two new faces at the linebacker spots where only junior Tim Kearney (Kingsford) returns as a starter. Transfer junior Ken McLean (Drayton Plains), the outstanding lineman in spring practice, and sophomore Larry Bitner (Coleman, Wis.) will be at the other two spots. Behind them are seniors Mike Shrock (Amherst, Mass.) and Al Brown (Camp Hill, Ala.) and freshman Bruce Remington (Bay City Central).

Seniors Bud Rowley (Adrian) and Mike Perry (Newberry) return at halfback and senior John Johnson (East Providence, R. I.) takes over at safety after playing split end in '69. Junior Bob Kroil (Green Bay Preble) and junior transfers Steve Shaughnessy (St. Paul, Minn.) and Steve Longshore (Arvada, Colo.) back them up.

"This is how we expect to go today," explained Dotsch, "but that doesn't mean we'll open the season that way. We'll make our evaluations after the scrimmage, perhaps make a few changes, and then settle down next week to polishing for Northern Iowa."

The Wildcats make their debut Saturday night, Sept. 12, in a night contest against UNI's Panthers in Cedar Falls, Iowa. The first home game is Sept. 19 against Hofstra.

Crusaders Sputter, Roar, Roar, Win Big

By MIKE UTT

After a rather shaky start in the first half, the Holy Name Crusaders bounced back in the final two quarters of play to register a 26-8 victory over the Iron Mountain Mountaineers in the opening game of the 1970 football season for both teams.

According to Crusader Coach Doug Bovin, the turning point in the game came after Iron Mountain put its only touchdown of the game on the board early in the second quarter.

"This fired us up," the young second-year coach said. "Up until that time we weren't playing very well, but when they scored we came alive."

"We had the normal first game jitters in the first half, but we played like we were halfway into the season in the second," he said.

First Touchdown
Holy Name's first touchdown of the game came late in the first quarter as play after Iron Mountain's center snapped the ball over the punter's head. The Crusaders took over on the Iron Mountain 20-yard line and scored in nine plays.

Junior Joe Moberg carried the ball to paydirt from a yard out after he picked up 14 yards in the drive. Over Cannon's lay for the extra point was blocked.

Iron Mountain took the lead at the 1:50 mark of the second quarter. Although the time may seem a little strange, this was the correct time, as the last two quarters lasted 10 minutes apiece due to a mistake made by the timekeeper and unnoticed by the referee until later in the period.

High school rules limit quarters to 12 minutes apiece, but the referee said that this mistake was all right as long as both periods were played the same length of time. The time was corrected in the second half.

Air Attack
The Mountaineers' touchdown was set up by a 38-yard screen pass from quarterback Walt Bietila to John Perla. Bietila then passed the remaining 18 yards to Mike Kopp for the touchdown.

Iron Mountain lined up to kick their extra point, but once again the snap sailed over the kicker's head and rolled back to the 20-yard line. Perla picked the ball up and threw it to Dean Petschar, who caught it around the five-yard line and went into the end zone untouched for two points, making the score Iron Mountain 8, Holy Name 6.

Don Boquette of the Crusaders blocked a punt on the Iron Mountain 26-yard and Holy Name went back into the lead seven plays later when quarterback Joe Kroil bootlegged the ball around his right end into the end zone from three yards out. A run for the two-point conversion failed.

Holy Name scored again at the four-minute mark of the third period on a 13-yard run by Bill Skradski, who did not play football last year. Some fine running by Skradski and Moberg set up the touchdown, which the Crusaders scored in 10 plays from their own 44-yard line.

Called Back
Tom Ness ran the ball into the end zone for an apparent two-point conversion, but one of the Crusader linemen was guilty of a clipping violation and Ness' run was called back. After that, a pass by Kroil fell incomplete.

Following the Holy Name kickoff, Iron Mountain tried three plays and were unable to pick up a first. Nick Simone went back to punt, but when he looked up, all he could see was the gigantic figure of Joe Harvey staring him in the face. Harvey blocked the punt at the 11-yard line and then caught it in the air and raced into the end zone. Kroil ran for the two points, giving the Crusaders their 26-8 margin.

After the game, Bovin said that he was extremely happy with the defensive play of his team, which allowed Iron Mountain a total of just four yards rushing in the game. Bovin singled out the play of Paul VanEnkevort, Joe Joran, Chuck Guay, Harvey and Gary Kleiman on defense.

On offense, Bovin thought Skradski and Moberg did fine jobs and was pleased with Kroil's quarterbacking. The Crusaders picked a total of 190 yards in the game, 166 on the ground. Skradski carried the ball 13 times for 75 yards and Moberg ground out 55 yards in 17 carries to pace the attack.

Bovin also added that the players dedicated Friday night's game to their injured teammate, Dan Bougie, who suffered a broken arm while making a tackle in Wednesday's scrimmage. Bougie will be in traction for four to six weeks and in a cast for 10 weeks, he said.

The scoring summary:

HN—Kroil, 3-yd. run (run failed)

Everything Goes Haywire In Pirates New Stadium

Rain, rain, go away . . . and take that ornery tarpaulin in Pittsburgh with you.
With the Pirates leading 4-1 Friday night, Philadelphia's Don Money walked to open the seventh inning when the rains came. The automatic tarpaulin, which rises out of a trench along the third base line in Pittsburgh's new Three Rivers Stadium, was set in motion.

Pending the final outcome, the Pirates remained .0004 of a percentage point ahead of the Chicago Cubs in the National League East. The Cubs beat the New York Mets 7-4, dropping the losers 1½ games back.
Elsewhere in the NL, San Diego clobbered Cincinnati 15-2,

Houston downed Los Angeles 7-3 and Montreal edged St. Louis 9-7 in 13 innings. San Francisco and Atlanta were rained out in the fifth inning with the Giants leading 1-0.
Ironically, it wasn't raining very hard in Pittsburgh when plate umpire Lee Weyer called time. "We had reports that once it started it would rain hard," Weyer explained. "We were just trying to protect the field."
Solo homers by Richie Hebner, Bob Robertson and Willie Stargell staked the Pirates to their 4-1 lead. Steve Blaise, who held the Phillies to five hits through six innings, will be replaced tonight by George Brunet. The Phils will wait to see what happens in the top of the seventh before they decide on a new pitcher.
Roberto Clemente of the Pirates injured his lower back as he grounded out in the first inning and left the game. It was not known how long he'll be out.
Randy Hundley's two-run single in the seventh inning broke a 3-3 tie and sparked the Cubs to their first Wrigley Field victory over the Mets this season in seven starts. Paul Povich made it a three-run inning with a sacrifice fly and Jim Hickman homered in the eighth. Hundley had doubled across the Cubs' first run in the second.
Art Shamsky hit a three-run homer in the sixth for New York to wipe out a 3-0 Chicago lead.
Padres Win
Pitcher Mike Cokins belted a grand slam homer and Clarence Gaston and Nate Colbert also connected as the Padres tagged Cincinnati ace Jim Merritt and three relievers for 18 hits. Bobby Tolan homered for the Reds. Jim Maloney, making his first appearance for Cincinnati since he was injured last April, was touched for two runs in the sixth on Gaston's homer and two more in the seventh.
Jim Wynn singled to start a four-run uprising in the eighth inning, then singled home the final run of the inning as the Astros beat the Dodgers. Tom Haller hit a two-run homer for the losers.
Gary Sutherland's sacrifice fly and a wild pitch gave Montreal two runs and a 9-7 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in 13 innings. Montreal took a 7-5 lead on two bases loaded walks in the 10th, but Jose Cardinal tied it with a two-run homer in the bottom of the inning.

Lombardi Returned To Native New York

NEW YORK (AP) — The body of Vince Lombardi was returned today to his native New York where he began the football career which reached legendary heights before he was struck down by cancer on Thursday.
The body of the 57-year-old Lombardi was to lie in repose for 12 hours at the Abbey Funeral Home here after his casket was viewed for a day in Washington where he had been coach and executive vice president of the Redskins.
A requiem mass will be celebrated by Terence Cardinal Cooke, archbishop of New York, at 11 a.m. EDT, Monday in St. Patrick's Cathedral. Lombardi will be buried at Mt. Olivet, a cemetery at Middletown Township, near Red Bank, N.J., the birthplace of his widow, Maria. Pallbearers include three of his former ballplayers, Bart Starr, Willie Wood and Paul Hornung of the Green Bay Packers; one of his former coaches, Col. Earl "Red" Blaik of Army; his employers Edward Bennett Williams of the Redskins and Richard Bourguignon and Tom Canadeo of the Packers; and three longtime friends, O.K. Kruger of Washington, E.D. Breslin of New York and R.B. Levitas of San Francisco.

The presidents of the 26 National Football League teams will serve as honorary pallbearers.
Lombardi, son of an immigrant Italian butcher, was born and went to school in Brooklyn where he became a star fullback at St. Francis Prep. He switched from fullback to guard when he went to Fordham University and became one of the famed "Seven Blocks of Granite" in 1936-36.
He coached high school football, basketball and baseball for a few years in New Jersey but returned to Fordham as an assistant in 1947. Two years later he joined Blaik at Army.
Lombardi left West Point to become an assistant coach with the New York Giants for three years before heading west to Green Bay, Wis., where he made his fame.
Green Bay won the NFL title in 1961 and 1962 and, after a lapse of two seasons, won three straight titles plus the first two Super Bowl games.
His over-all coaching record in Green Bay, including exhibitions, was 141-39-4.
He joined the Washington Redskins as a coach, executive vice president and part owner in 1969.

Twins Blank Angels On Aleya's Homer

By The Associated Press
The California management waited an extra 15 minutes until all the fans got to their seats before starting the game. But once it began, Minnesota's Brant Aleya didn't wait very long to do in the Angels.
With two out and two on in the first inning, Aleya drove a first pitch from Rudy May over the left field fence for his 13th home run and the Twins went on to a 4-0 victory that opened up a four-game lead over the second-place Angels in the American League West.
Aleya's In First
Aleya's homer which gave him eight runs batted in in only 14 at-bats against Angel pitching this year was enough to back the combined pitching of Bert Blyleven and Ron Perranoski who gave a California crowd of 38,199 little to cheer about.
Oakland blanked Kansas City 5-0, Baltimore outlasted Boston 8-6, New York nipped Cleveland 3-2, Detroit took Washington 6-3 and Milwaukee edged the Chicago White Sox 3-2 in 10 innings in other AL games.
The 18-year-old Blyleven, who lives in Anaheim retired the first 11 men he faced and had a two-hitter until he ran into trouble in the sixth. With one out,

Tony Gonzales singled, Jim Fregosi walked and Alex Johnson beat out an infield hit to load the bases.
But Perranoski then came in to strike out pinch-hitter Billy Cowan and get Tommy Reynolds on a force play.
Oakland Wins
Tony Oliva rapped four straight hits for the Twins.
Don Mincher and Gene Tenace clouted homers and Jim Hunter 16-12, pitched a five-hitter as Oakland beat Kansas City for its sixth straight victory to remain six games behind the Twins. It was Hunter's ninth try for his 16th victory. He had last won on July 30.
Brooks Robinson slammed five straight hits, including a solo homer and a three-run shot to key Baltimore's victory over Boston. Tony Conigliaro hit his second grand slam in four days, his 28th homer of the season, in the first when Boston chased Mike Cuellar, Baltimore's 21-game winner.
Jake Gibbs homered and then broke a 2-2 tie with an RBI single, giving the Yankees and rookie Steve Kline their victory over Cleveland.
Floyd Wicker singled in Tommy Harper in the 10th for Milwaukee's victory over the White Sox.

Dolphins' Rookies To Get Stiffest Challenge Tonight

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Each week Miami Dolphin Coach Don Shula says his ample sprinkling of secondary rookies will get their stiffest challenge.
Four times and the kiddie corps has met them all.
"Now it's Sonny Jurgensen. One of the best pure passers in pro football," said Shula. "He has a great arm, and can throw all night and pass you dizzy."
"Old Jurgie will be tough," said Shula. Coach Vince Lombardi opened it up for Jurgie with a good, solid running game last year and what a passer Jurgensen can be when he has that kind of help.
The Redskins will play as their former leader, Lombardi, lies in repose. He died Thursday of cancer after one year as Washington's coach and a string of championships at Green Bay.
In other exhibition games, the New York Giants played the Philadelphia Eagles in an afternoon game at Princeton, N.J. Night contests had the Kansas City Chiefs at Dallas in a nationally televised clash (BC), the Baltimore Colts vs the Detroit Lions at Raleigh, N.C.; the Cincinnati Bengals vs. the Green Bay Packers at Milwaukee; the Chicago Bears at Denver, the Houston Oilers vs. the Los Angeles Rams in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif.; and the San Diego Chargers vs. the St. Louis Cardinals and the Cleveland Browns vs. the Minnesota Vikings in the annual doubleheader at Cleveland.

In a pair of Friday night games, the Atlanta Falcons edged the Buffalo Bills 10-7 and the Pittsburgh Steelers routed the Boston Patriots 31-3.
Kenny Vinyard's 26-yard field goal was Atlanta's victory margin over the Bills. Atlanta got a touchdown on a 27-yard Randy Johnson-to-Paul Gipson pass while the Bills' touchdown came on Max Anderson's one-yard run.

It was homecoming night for rookie quarterback Terry Bradshaw as he led the Steelers to a touchdown the first time Pittsburgh had the ball. Bradshaw capped a 72-yard drive with a one-yard plunge. Dick Hoak ran for another and Terry Hanratty tossed for one and ran for another as the Steelers won their third straight exhibition.

Detour Wins

By The Associated Press
DeTour, the state's 13th rated Class D high school football team in last year's final Associated Press poll, rolled to a 32-0 triumph over Cedarville in its season opener Friday.
It was one of six high school football games in the Upper Peninsula, which begins its season two weeks before the Lower Peninsula schools in order to finish before the weather becomes too cold or snow filled.
The DeTour score was the biggest point spread but Crystal Falls was right behind in its 31-6 victory over Houghton.
In the other games Calumet downed Bessemer 14-6, Engadine tripped Rudyard 16-6, and Pickford topped Sault Ste. Marie Loretto 19-12.

Probation Status

Commissioner Calls McLain On Carpet

NEW YORK (AP) — Denny McLain, Detroit's star right-handed pitcher who has become the stormy petrel of baseball, has been called on the carpet again by Commissioner Bowie Kuhn.
McLain had been suspended a week ago by Jim Campbell, general manager of the Tigers, after he had doused two sports writers with pails of water before a game against Oakland.
The suspension was scheduled to end Friday, but Kuhn ordered it continued pending a hearing in New York Wednesday on McLain's probationary status. This referred to McLain's earlier suspension, from March 31 to July 1, because of his involvement in 1967 bookmaking activities.
"Information currently brought to my attention has raised the question as to whether McLain's conduct in recent weeks has been consistent with the requirements of his probationary status," Kuhn said Friday in ordering McLain to appear for the hearing next week.
"Under the circumstances," Continued Kuhn's statement, "I have today advised McLain that he is not to report to the Detroit club until a hearing can be held on this subject with McLain present in New York City next Wednesday, Sept. 9. Pending the hearing this office will have no further comment on this subject."
In ending McLain's earlier suspension Kuhn found that the 31-game winner of 1968 was the "victim of a confidence scheme."
"I was just clowning around," McLain said of his water pouring acts against Watson Spoelstra of the Detroit News and Jim Hawkins of the Detroit Free Press.
Campbell apparently didn't see it that way. He suspended McLain without pay indefinitely for a period not to exceed 30 days. He later shortened it to seven days.

4-Way Tie In Hartford Open

Colbert Shares Lead; Thanks To Palmer's Tips

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (AP) — Jim Colbert, a fast-talking little Kansan, credited a quick lesson from Arnold Palmer with his share of the first-round lead in the $100,000 Greater Hartford Open Golf Tournament.
Colbert had eight birdies en route to a five-under-par 66 in Friday's opening round and was tied for the top with pudgy Bob Murphy, Pete Brown and Paul Moran, a tour sophomore who hasn't come close to winning anything.
Colbert, a 29-year-old tour regular and a one-time Kansas State backfield, said he was on the practice tee next to Palmer last week at the Dow Jones Open and had only 20 minutes before his tee time when he asked:
Palmer Gives Advice
"Arnold, what am I doing wrong?"
"He said, 'Man, you don't have time for a lesson now.'"

"I told him, 'Put the word on me. Lay it on. I'm a fast learner.'"
"He changed my grip," Colbert continued. "He moved my right hand around. I'd lot it get too much under the club. He said 'Put it there,' and showed me."
"I said, 'It's there forever.'"
"I really played well and after that, I finished 11th and made about $5,000 and really played well."
"It's becoming more and more comfortable to me."
He also said a refund putting touch helped greatly.
"It's the first day all year I've had my putting stroke," he said. "I have a kind of peculiar stroke, but it really felt good today."
One Stroke Margin
The leading quartet held only a one-stroke margin over a group of seven tied at 67, including Dean Refram, who had a brilliant 30 on the back n. 22.

The others are Miller Barber, Doug Sanders, R.H. Sikes, Billy Maxwell, Joe Carr and Steve Oppermann.
There was another large group at 68 and about two dozen within four strokes of each other, including Bill Garrett who had a hole-in-one on the 215-yard, 17th hole en route to a 69.
PGA Champ Dave Stockton took a 72 with Lee Trevino and Frank Beard at 73. Palmer, Nicklaus, Billy Casper, Gary Player and Tony Jacklin are not competing.
Colbert, a sturdy, 165-pounder who won the Monsanto Open a year ago, had three bogeys, one from a trap and the others on three-putts.
But he more than made up for it with a 40-foot birdie putt and six other birdie putts ranging from 10 to 18 feet. He wedged to two feet for the other.
"I was the best putting round I've had in, well, I just don't know when," he said.

what's in a NAME?

People ask for brand-name products because they have become known for dependability and service through the years. These names assure us of quality.

We, too, are known by our names. Mention of John Smith immediately inspires a positive or negative reaction, depending upon the man's reputation. A good name is indeed our most priceless, yet most perishable, possession.

Day in and day out, our thoughts, words and actions must be on the side of goodness, for it is today which determines tomorrow's past — for good or for bad.

If we could only perform each act and utter each word as if they were our last, those by which we would be remembered, then how great would be the significance of our names!

In this confused era where better can we turn for guidance and help than to the Church? Here we will discover the teachings of Christ — the most hallowed name of all.
